

FLOWERS THAT EMPOWER
southsideblooms.com

Community Organizer

Southside Blooms is a 501c3 nonprofit that creates jobs for at risk young people in the floral industry. We are looking to hire a community organizer who can help us establish and leverage B2B partnerships in the business community and build relationships with schools, nonprofits, and other local stakeholders in the community to increase the youth pipeline. The community organizer will be expected to run our organizing approach that they would be trained in.

Community Organizer

Full Time (40 hours per week)

$17 per hour with healthcare and dental benefits available

Must have a minimum of 2 years of community organizing experience

Must be organized and systems oriented

Must be very professional

Must be a good team player

Must be reliable and responsible

Must be task oriented

Must have own transportation (location is in Englewood)

Must be very positive and have a great attitude

Must have basic knowledge of organizing methodologies

Experience with political organizing is a plus but not required

Having established community relationships in the Chicagoland area is a plus but not required

Responsibilities

Lead the Southside Blooms organizing model

Train and oversee youth, volunteers, etc.

Engage and maintain community and business partnerships

Initiate and manage community oriented campaigns

To apply please send a resume, 1-2 paragraphs why you want this job, and 2-3 references to info@southsideblooms.com

To read more about Southside Blooms please visit www.southsideblooms.com.